Special Opportunity: Chicagoland Workforce Leadership Academy

On behalf of the Chicago Jobs Council and the Chicagoland Workforce Funder Alliance, we are pleased to inform you that applications are now open for the inaugural cohort of the Chicagoland Workforce Leadership Academy.

The Chicago Jobs Council, the Chicagoland Workforce Funder Alliance, The Aspen Institute, and local stakeholders are launching the 2019 Chicagoland Workforce Leadership Academy with the goal of developing a local network of workforce development leaders who can lead effective workforce strategies both within their own organizations and in collaboration with others in the local workforce system.

Please consider applying to become a part of this diverse cohort of professionals committed to strengthening economic opportunity for Chicagoland workers and employers. If you know of other workforce leaders who may be interested in this opportunity, we ask that you share this announcement with them.
