THE CHICAGO JOBS COUNCIL
TRAINING INSTITUTE

Making the Right Employment Match

You've learned the hard way that connecting job seekers to the first job opening you find doesn't usually last. While it can take more time, finding the best employment match for each of your job seekers leads to better retention outcomes and fulfillment of their long-term career aspirations.

After attending this training, you will be able to:

- Support successful job seeker transitions within their chosen career paths
- Assess business partners for job quality, workplace culture, and hiring needs
- Set clear expectations for job seekers and business partners to ensure lasting relationships
- Coach job holders on employment retention and career advancement strategies
