Introducing Our New Workforce Professionals Credential

Maya Robbins<<https://cjc.net/author/maya/>>

Applications are now open for FFTI's new Workforce Professionals Credential! Through this exclusive, year-long cohort experience, participants will walk away with best practices to improve their organization's recruitment, assessment, and placement outcomes. This is also an opportunity for participants to invest in their talents and advance their career!

FFTI has a track record of effectively building the capacity of frontline workforce staff and their organizations. Through previous FFTI cohort experiences:

- * 100% of alumni report knowing how to make improvements to their programming
- * 95% developed useful new tools for their work
- * 90% have a clearer understanding of workforce development best practices

Apply today! <<https://cjc.bamboohr.com/jobs/view.php?id=23>>

The Workforce Professionals Credential programs runs from August 2018 to May 2019. The deadline to apply is June 22nd. Scholarships are available on a case by case basis.
