April 28: The Jobs Council Seeks "Gig" Workers for Focus Group

The Jobs Council is teaming up with Kellogg Business School students to find better solutions for individuals working multiple part-time or side jobs to make a living. We are looking to hear from workers currently involved in independent or "gig" work or doing multiple part-time jobs in a focus group held on April 28th from 12:00-1:00 pm. Lunch, transit passes, and gift cards will be provided. Job seekers can register with this link. If translation assistance is needed, please contact Angela Morrison at angela@cj.net.

April 28: Center for Changing Lives's Money Smart Week

On April 28 from 11 am - 1 pm, Center for Changing Lives (CCL) will host a Money Smart Week event. Attendees will hear from past and current CCL participants about their financial services and participate in an active discussion about creating financial visions. This event is free, families are welcome, and food will be provided. To learn more, see the flyer here.
