

42nd Annual Meeting Celebration

We're excited to have Sen. Celina Villanueva, State Senator for Illinois' 12th District, moderate our 42nd Annual Meeting Panel: What's New and What's Normal for Workforce Development.

Noticeable advances in workforce development have moved us to thinking about the full humanity of jobseekers. Today, we're more aware of the complexities that individuals navigate in the workplace. Workforce development service providers, funders, employers, and policymakers are actively thinking about reducing barriers that limit potential and possibilities in the labor market.

During the Annual Meeting, Sen. Villanueva will moderate a discussion with workforce development leaders about what's working in workforce development and what keeps them inspired to change systems.

Stay tuned for information about our panelists in the weeks to come.

In addition to a robust panel discussion, our Annual Meeting will feature:

- Breakfast
- Presentation of CJC's Betty J. Willhoite Award recognizing an individual, organization, or team that has gone above and beyond in advancing CJC's work and improving the field of workforce development
