

Chicago Jobs Council's Training Institute

Cultivating a Productive Team Virtual Training

As a leader, you have to: manage your team's productivity, troubleshoot when things go awry, and handle the interpersonal dynamics of the team. Through this two-part interactive training, learn how to use coaching skills, counseling, progressive discipline, and influence to boost your team's productivity.

Date & Time:

Session #1-
September 22nd
Session #2-
September 29th
10 AM-12 PM CST

Location:

 Zoom

After attending this training, you will be able to:

- Employ strategies to lead through influence
- Assess staff performance, then prepare and facilitate performance reviews
- Communicate expectations and offer feedback to your staff in order to enhance performance and outcomes

Facilitator

Wally Smith, Ed.D., is Director of Talent Development at UChicago Medicine. Wally helps leaders and organizations develop leadership skills and strategies critical to their success through training, instructional design, and coaching leaders at all levels. Several years ago, Wally founded LPM Associates, an Organization Development and Training consulting practice. Wally is also a member of the adjunct faculty of Lewis University. In 2011, Wally earned a Doctorate in Adult Education from Northern Illinois University, and holds an MS in Management and Organization Behavior from Benedictine University.
