

GIVING
TUESDAY

Thanks for giving.

Nov 29, 2022

Thank you to everyone who donated to our #GivingTuesday campaign yesterday. We know you received a flurry of emails and we're especially grateful you chose to support Chicago Jobs Council's (CJC) mission to work with community and institutional leaders to reimagine our workforce system so all people can thrive through employment. Because of your donations, we are closer to reaching our $5,000 fundraising goal.

By recognizing that systemic, institutional, and individual racism create disparities in the way people of color fare in the labor market, CJC is pulling on levers in the workforce development ecosystem to create systems change. In the coming years, we will integrate our newly launched anti-racist workforce development framework into our trainings and advocacy work. This framework prioritizes every worker's future financial stability, career pathway, and economic security. It honors the humanity of all people and centers those most impacted by systemic racial injustice. We hope you will join us on this journey.

If you didn't have a chance to donate yesterday, there is still time. You can donate today and through the end of the calendar year. Our generous donor will continue to match all new and increased donations. These donations will support us as we work with our members and partners to explore how to create a more just, equitable, anti-racist workforce development system.

Donate

Whether you are able to make a donation or not, as part of CJC's community, we would not be able to do what we do without you.
