House subcommittee proposes steep cuts to workforce, education programs for FY 2018

Yesterday, the House Appropriations Labor, Health and Human Services, Education and Related Agencies (Labor-HHS) Subcommittee released its draft of the Fiscal Year 2018 \(FY 2018\) Labor-Health and Human Services-Education appropriations bill.

The bill cuts funding across all three agencies - Department of Labor funding would be cut by $1 billion; the Department of Education would be cut by about $2.4 billion; and the overall budget Health and Human Services would be cut by $542 million.
