New Maryland policy aligns assessments across WIOA Title I & Title II

A major challenge in serving people under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act is making sure that they can easily navigate between Title I workforce and Title II adult education services.

A new policy in Maryland is designed to smooth that process and eliminate redundant testing that can be a barrier to participant success. NSC interviewed Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation official Erin Roth (pictured at right) to learn how and why the state issued the policy, and what it's expected to accomplish.
