Maryland expands access to state financial aid for GED earners

Earlier this month, Maryland passed legislation that will help residents with a high school equivalency diploma access one of the state's largest need-based tuition grants. On February 28th, National Skills Coalition joined Job Opportunities Task Force (JOTF) and other partners to testify in support of this legislation. Read more in NSC's latest blog post and learn more about Maryland's new bill and what it means for GED earners.
