Help us #MakePellWork for everyone

America's workers need your help! Last week we emailed you about efforts in Washington to derail the JOBS Act — a bipartisan bill that would expand Pell grants to high quality, short-term certificates that lead to well paying, in-demand jobs. Now we are asking you to speak up on social media and let Congress know that a four-year college degree is not the only path to success. Will you help us eliminate this bias against working people and #MakePellWork for everyone?

Head to our JOBS Act resource page for sample tweets you can use now to get the word out on social media. You'll also find fact sheets and other collateral to help win our collective fight to #MakePellWork!
